

Open House at New Camas School Set

Camas, Nov. 9 (Special)—Open house at the new Helen Baller school, an art exhibition in the gymnasium and a speaker for the local Kiwanis club meeting highlight the activities planned by Camas schools for American Education week.

Jack Griffith, assistant superintendent of the Portland schools and former junior high school principal will speak at the Camas Kiwanis club dinner tonight at 6:30.

An exhibition of 150 reproductions of fine art masterpieces is being held in the high school gym Tuesday and today. During the day, senior high, junior high and grade school children saw the pictures. The exhibition will be open to the public tonight from 7 to

THE COLUMBIAN, Wednesday, Nov. 9, 1949 and THE SUN, Vancouver, Washington

13

8:30 p.m. A small charge will be made, receipts of which will provide pictures to hang in school rooms throughout the system.

From 4 to 7:30 p.m., November 14, the new Helen Baller school which houses most of the second and third grades for the entire district will conduct an open house. Mrs. Ethel Paul, building principal invites all parents to attend whether they have children in the school or not. Mrs. Odmund Eagas, president of the P.T.A., is making all arrangements for the affair.

Parents are invited to visit any schools in the system where teachers and principals will be glad to confer with them.

1949